

ING SERVICE ENDS PROGRAM CHURCH EVENT

...of First Swedish Lutheran Church Close
...on 50th Anniversary.

The three-day program celebrating the 50th anniversary of the First Swedish Lutheran church of Rock Island was closed in a beautiful service at the church, Fourteenth street and Fourth avenue, Monday evening. A large congregation heard a delightful program of organ, piano, violin and vocal music and several chorus numbers.
The church choir rendered several selections with a neat and harmonious reflecting the ability of the individual members as well as a united tribute to the leader.
"Hallelu Deo," the first song, was heartily appreciated, as were "Oh, Come, Let Us Worship!" and "O, Clap Your Hands." In their numbers, the chorus was assisted by Miss Caroline Peterson at the organ and Miss Nellie Swanson at the piano.

Miss Swanson also offered a solo on the piano, rendering the "Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 8," with a flair which brought out and stressed the beauty of the selection.
Duet Pleasing.
Miss Ruth Larson, singing "The Good Shepherd," pleased with her sympathetic rendition, and the vocal

...by the Messrs. Martin and Lincoln Rydbeck. "Now Open the Name of Jesus Son of David" was well received.

An organ number, "Concert Overture," solo by Miss Lillie Cer-vis, elicited much appreciation by the vigor of the style and the fastness of the tempo with which Miss Cervis played. After Esther Swanson, accompanied by Ernest Swanson, delighted with a vocal number, a violin solo by Miss Nellie Peterson and a vocal selection by Martin Anderson, presiding, the choir number and hymn by the congregation which closed the service.

School Held Festival.
The Sunday school of the church held a special festival yesterday morning, O. F. Olson, who 25 years ago was Sunday school superintendent at this local church, addressing the school and relating his recollections of the school in its younger days. Rev. C. E. Slatt, a former pastor, also spoke. The service was led by Miss Myrtle Wessel, the superintendent, who read the scripture lesson and led the school in prayer.

A communion service took the place of the morning church service. Rev. Slatt, preaching the sermon, Dr. C. E. Slatt, a former pastor, offered a preparatory sermon and music by the choir proved a pleasing feature.

Historical Session.
An historical session, at which John Carlson of Oakland, Neb., gave the most interesting reminiscences of the years of struggle in the infancy of the church, was held in the afternoon. Rev. Karl A. Nilsson gave a graphic history of the congregation and brought to his listeners a keen enthusiasm in the growth and development of the church in the performance of its duty.

After the program light luncheon was served in the basement of the church-annex.

Boy Scout News

The court of honor meeting last Friday evening at Scout headquarters was well attended and a large number of Scouts were present at the time to be reviewed on their tents. The court of honor committee composed of Mayor Levi E. V.
Cushman, E. O. Valle, Jr., C. E.
Sharpe, O. E. Corvin, Fraser Vance and A. B. DeVon were on the job to examine the Scouts' Presentation of first class badges were made by C. E. Sharpe and E. O. Valle, Jr., presented the second class awards.
Court of honor meetings are held the third Friday of each month.

Troop No. 22 held a well attended and enthusiastic meeting Friday evening at St. Joseph's school under the leadership of Scoutmaster Steve Miller. The reports on the membership campaign for Scouts were heard and showed that a large number of new members were enrolled, making the troop the largest in the city. Troop 22 is working hard on the events for the next Scout rally and expects to give first honors. The leader of this troop deserves special commendation for the splendid work he is doing.

Troop No. 20 will meet at 7:30 this evening at the Memorial Christian church with the Scout executive and the new leaders of the troop, Scoutmaster Arthur Bellin and Edward Lamp. Members of the troop committee will also be present to help in reorganizing this troop. All former members of the troop and others who wish to enroll are invited to this evening's meeting.

The first meeting of the Scout-masters' school will be held Friday evening of this week at Scout headquarters. All workers with boys in the city are invited to attend this training school, which begins at 7:30 and ends promptly at 9 o'clock.

Practical methods will be used in the instruction and all who attend will be given practical demonstration in methods of handling Scout troops.

FOR ITCHING TORTURE

Use Antiseptic Liquid Zemo
There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

THE NEW YORK STORE

EDITORIAL

Were you here Saturday? If you were, it won't be necessary to say anything about the store, because you saw for yourself. But if you did not come, you missed the greatest day of tri-city merchandising.

Absolute fact! Thousands were here from Moline, Rock Island, Davenport and from every town within a range of forty miles—and every one went away smiling and carrying all the best quality goods any human being could be expected to carry.

Every floor was crowded with a happy, satisfied throng of eager shoppers. People who have lived in this community all their lives said to each other: "Greatest event in 50 years."

And the Bargain Basement was the center of it all! Here's the secret: People are Making This Store Their Headquarters—and "Building Your Good Will" Is Our Earnest Aim.

Good Things for Thanksgiving

NO MATTER what you may want for your Thanksgiving Table, you will find it here.
If you were here Saturday at the grand opening of our Real Bargain Basement, you will know the advantage of purchasing your Groceries and Meats here.

You not only get the best on the market, but you get the best with the lowest possible cost to you.
The new Bargain Basement will mean a great thing for the people of this community in the way of saving on their grocery and meat bills.

Of course you will have to abide with the "Cash and Carry" plan. But who wouldn't, when you can buy things here, cheaper than elsewhere?

The volume of business last Saturday was wonderful, and the people have shown their appreciation of our most humble efforts by making this store their headquarters.

So come here tomorrow and let us help you plan that big Thanksgiving Dinner.

Buying on Our Christmas Club Plan

Many are taking advantage of this plan.

You simply select the Cedar Chest, the Lamp or whatever piece you wish to buy for gift-giving purposes, divide the initial or first Christmas Club Plan payment into the number of weeks till Christmas, and each week pay this amount. On Christmas eve your purchase is delivered and you pay the balance in monthly installments during 1921.

We will be very glad to explain just how the Plan operates if you will come in. Any salesman will tell you.

Prices are as low now, after this reducing racket, as they will be—at least until Spring. So manufacturers are informing us daily.

Dozens of small rugs and furniture pieces that are wonderful as Christmas gifts are here now. Treat yourself to a walk through the store.
